Farris Marketing Creates and Implements New Websites for Three Clients

BOARDMAN, OHIO — Farris Marketing, long known for superior website design that combines attractiveness and functionality, recently completed new sites for three clients:

- Power Tool & Supply, which offers professional-grade power tools for sale and rent to contractors and industrial plants nationwide.
- Villa Maria Educational and Spirituality Center, which hosts religious-based programs, retreats and workshops. The facility is also available for rental by outside business and educational groups.
- BeautiStone, a Youngstown-based company that offers stone and epoxy-based concrete resurfacing products for commercial, industrial and residential flooring.

Farris web services include design concepts, layout and implementation; copywriting; optimization; and ongoing management.

Farris Marketing offers research, strategic planning, public relations, advertising and internet media services. It is headquartered in Boardman, with offices in Cleveland and Tampa.
